

Michael Karegeannes, physical therapist, is the co-owner of Freedom Physical Therapy Services in Fox Point, Wisconsin since 1997. His specialties in the field of Physical Therapy include: Temporal Mandibular Joint Dysfunction, Spine and Pelvic Dysfunctions Myofascial Pain and Orthopedic Physical Therapy

Michael graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1989 with a Bachelors of Science Degree in Physical Therapy. After he graduated, he received his Athletic Training License from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, and later, Michael completed his Manual Therapy Certification and Masters of Health Science from the University of St. Augustine for Health Sciences in Florida.

In 2005, Michael had the honor of being trained by Dr. Mariano Rocabado, who is one of the leading physical therapy experts in the field of craniofacial therapies. Michael holds a Craniofacial Certification with the University of St. Augustine for Health Sciences. In addition, he has attended an Orofacial Pain and TMD residency with the University of Minnesota Dental School. He is a member of the American Academy of Orofacial Pain (AAOP), and is one of only a few physical therapists in the United States recognized as a Certified Cervical and Temporomandibular Therapist with the AAOP. Michael is a board member of the Physical Therapy Board of Craniofacial & Cervical Therapeutics (PTBCCT) which encourages and educates fellow Physical Therapists to become involved in the evaluation and management of TMD. He is certified through Myopain Seminars as a Certified Myofascial Trigger Point Therapist, and he frequently uses intramuscular dry needling in the management of his patients. Michael is an instructor with Myopain Seminars and was one of the instructors involved with teaching and certifying the first group of dentists in the USA to be certified in dry needling to the head, neck and face. Michael has developed a 2-day lectures/lab course program on the Evaluation and Treatment of TMD/Craniofacial Pain.

Freedom Physical Therapy Services, a private practice in Wisconsin with offices in Fox Point, Grafton, and Brookfield.

Michael Karegeannes PT, MHSc, LAT, MTC, CFC, CCTT, CMTPT

mkaregeannes@freedompt.com

414-352-2082

www.freedompt.com